"...with Liberty and Justice for All."

Voices:
A Library Lecture Series
Hudson Valley Community College, Troy, NY

Spring 2005
January
11 a.m.
Thursday, January 27
Bulmer Telecommunications
Center Auditorium

Liberty and Justice Challenged: In Search of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Kenneth Durgans, Ed.D., vice provost for Institute Diversity at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, will examine Dr. King's complex transformation from 1964 to 1968 and explore lessons from Dr. King's life that can be learned today.

February
11 a.m.
Monday, February 7
Bulmer Telecommunications
Center Auditorium

Justice Outside the Box: A Community Prosecution Initiative

Albany County District Attorney David Soares will present current ideas related to practical implementation of a philosophy of community justice. He will discuss developing liaisons between the prosecutor and the community, as well as fostering community partnerships within the courtroom.

11 a.m.
Monday, February 28
Bulmer Telecommunications
Center Auditorium

Pervasive Development Disorder: An Overview

Kate Murray, Ph.D., an educational consultant, will identify and explain the five diagnoses under the Pervasive Developmental Disorder spectrum and provide an in-depth review of their core deficits.

March
11 a.m.
Thursday, March 3
Bulmer Telecommunications
Center Auditorium

Responding to Challenging Behaviors: Children with Autism Spectrum Disorders

Nancy Cupolo, department chairperson of Hudson Valley Community College's Teacher Preparation Department, will address the challenging behaviors sometimes demonstrated by children with autism. Practical ideas and interactive strategies for responding to daily situations encountered when working with autistic children will be highlighted.
April

Noon
Thursday, April 7
Bulmer Telecommunications
Center Auditorium

Justice Delayed: Wrongful Convictions in New York State

Award-winning author and investigative reporter, Scott Christianson, will discuss his new book, Innocent: Inside Wrongful Conviction Cases, and talk about how his project helped to gain the release of several innocent persons.

Liberty Preserved: The Rescue of Charles Nalle, A Fugitive Slave

Scott Christianson, an award-winning author and historian, will discuss his upcoming book about the adventures of a fugitive slave on the Underground Railroad and the slave's rescue in Troy by Harriet Tubman on the eve of the Civil War.

Noon
Thursday, March 17
Bulmer Telecommunications
Center Auditorium

Holding on to Historic Buildings

Jeff Baker, a restoration architect and Hudson Valley Community College graduate, will talk about the importance of preserving old buildings, especially those with historical or architectural significance. Using a PowerPoint display, he will show both national and local examples of his work. A question-and-answer session will follow his presentation.
In Appreciation

Academic Senate
Cultural Affairs Program
Office of the President

Committee Members

Sushmita Chatterji
Christian Clark
Anne Dearing
Larry Ellis
Sharon Kennedy

James LaBate
Phil Littlejohn
Robert Matthews
Ethan Roy

Jennifer Thompson
Brenda Twiggs
Paula von der Lancken
Maria Zernantauski

Cover

“East from South Cambridge”
2003, Gouache on paper, (17” h x 24” w) by Robert Moylan

For information call (518) 629-7336 www.hvcc.edu/voices

If you have a disability and require any reasonable accommodations, or an interpreter, please contact the Disability Resource Center at 629-7154 or TTY 629-7596.